

"Stand Up or Kneel Down" Conference

We had an incredible time at our 2nd annual IYT Brotherhood Conference at Sacramento State. Over 300 IYT brothers heard from amazing speakers, engaged in multiple workshops, a college resource fair, interacted with brothers from other campuses, and walked away with tangible strategies to improve their community!

IYT College Success Campaign

The College Success Campaign seeks to break the school to prison pipeline by helping young men of color graduate from college. The campaign's goal is to sign up 1,000 people to give $10 per month. Funds raised from the campaign will provide: mentorship, internships and need based grants to IYT college students.

IYT U Goes to Google

On March 19th, more than two dozen IYT U members traveled to Silicon Valley to visit the Google headquarters! The visit to Google was one of a kind, especially since not just anyone can go and visit, we were fortunate for the opportunity. IYT U students heard from Google Engineers on a career panel about their journeys through college and to where they are now in respective field of work. Additionally, IYT U students experienced the Googleplex campus and saw all that entails to further technology and innovation.

IYT Senior Kevin Decker Featured on ABC10

Kevin Decker, IYT Senior at Luther Burbank High School, was featured on a ABC10 short segment to talk about his neighborhood Meadowview in light of the Stephon Clark incident.

IYT Yearbook

This year, we are creating a YEARBOOK to display our scholars achievements, college visits, team building activities and highlight our students who are transitioning to high school and college. Parents and community partners will be able to purchase an ad to highlight their business or son's time in IYT. Visit improveyourtomorrow.org to purchase an ad.

Contact michelle@improveyourtomorrow.org for more info.

IYT Student Profile

IYT College Academy: Abraham Lizaola

Abraham is a Junior at Del Campo High School and describes his journey to joining IYT.

“I passed by the IYT room and right away was greatly interested. I ended up joining IYT because I felt a connection to the message of going to college.”

Abraham continues with what he has learned since joining IYT. “Since IYT, I have become a more dependent and responsible individual with the help of my mentors. I learned that with the right mindset along with hard work I can achieve my goals.” While in school, Abraham hopes to get into the right college and finish off strong in school.

Abraham leaves some words of advice for future IYT brothers, “try to do everything with excellence no matter how small it is.” He also wanted to give a special thanks to his IYT staff: Program Director Jairon Jackson and Academic Mentors Francisco Ruiz and Bradley Paniagua.
